What is this training about?

Goal: To increase the quality and quantity of youth work by adding or improving the use of media as a tool in youth work.

This training is intended for experienced youth leaders from European countries interested in introducing media as a tool in their organizations and in their work with young people.

You will:

- » participate in media production try-it-yourself sessions
- » practice basic audiovisual skills and critical thinking about media
- » learn how to bring youth-related issues to mainstream media
- » develop strategic thinking for nonprofit organisations
- » use social and audio visual media as working method
- » participate in sessions of creating educational materials which can be passed on to other youth organizations, ready to use
- » learn to deal with difficult issues
- » become aware of the opportunities provided by the European Commission for youth work
